HENDERSON
HIGH SCHOOL

Foreword

IT IS with pleasure coupled with a measure of misgiving that we publish this, the first issue of the Pep-Pac. In preparing this edition, the Staff has endeavored to portray not only a true picture of the life we lead but also to convey the pride and love we feel for our dear old school. If this volume in the years to come, will awaken in your minds fond recollections of the happy days spent at the HENDERSON HIGH SCHOOL—then we have succeeded in our purpose.

Dedication

To

GEORGE CHAMNESS DAVIDSON
Superrisor of Vance County Schools.

- Who, as a man, has given us a square deal, excellent advice, and honest friendship.
- Who, as a teacher, has sought to instill those ideals of justice and of high moral standard, by giving his best for the past five years to the HENDERSON HIGH SCHOOL.
- Who, by his deep and untiring interest in athletics, has promoted and backed up our teams, and inspired in each of us the love of good sportsmanship and fair play.
- Who, as the Past Principal of the Henderson High, is known and respected by all, we offer this tribute, and dedicate this our First High School Annual.

Alma Mater

*Dear Alma Mater, your praises we sing
As around this great world we go;
Sweet recollections to our hearts you bring—
A symbol that we love you so.*

*Beloved Alma Mater, how great is our debt,
As we think of your service and love,
Time may roll by but we'll never forget
The ideals you held above.*

*May the future fulfill all your longings;
Onward and upward be your way,
And that we may help to spread your teachings
Is the wish of your children this day.*

In Appreciation

In 1923, John Thomas Alderman, who for twenty-four years had served nobly and well as Superintendent of our city schools, resigned. At commencement his former pupils presented him with a small token of their love and the following message:

Twice ten times and four
Has the sun risen o'er
Our Commencement Days,
Since in our school you started
One strong and eager-hearted,
To lead little children
Into brighter, nobler ways.
For the length and service of thy days,
For the wisdom and kindness of thy ways,
We come today sounding a children's praise.

Since that first Commencement Day
Many feet have followed in thy way,
And as each class of girls and boys
Have stood facing life's sorrows and joys,
In loving words, you've told to them
The magic keys they must possess
Would they unlock life's door of success
And with the mantle of fame enfold them.
Now—we thy pupils pray, "Oh Father above,
Encircle our dear teacher with arms of love."

Our long loved friend and true
Humble gifts from hand and heart
To-day we bring to you—
Store them in your memory apart.
Children's pennies turned to silver and gold,
You see in this pitcher and bowl.
In this book you will find
A message of love in every line,
Each name in autograph there
Has in thy gift an equal share.

If e'er in the future years
Time seems long, the world seems cold,
Or doubt distress you with its fears,
Turn, for comfort to this book
And read love that can ne'er be told.
And with every drop from this pitcher you pour,
May you feel that love a benediction o'er and o'er,
And know the fruits of thy labors will grow more and more
Until the last wave of your influence reaches eternity's shore.

Room Teacher—Miss Ruth Roth

Recounting the high ideals of life,
She Upheld in work and in play,
We wish to Thank her sincerely
For her efforts to Help us each day.

Remembering her personal interest in us,
Her Offerings of service so true,
We will love our Teacher forever,
And we grieve to tell Her adieu.

ANNIE CAROLYN BLANCHARD

Activities: Sigma Lambda Literary Society.

Annie is one of those rare individuals who is happy to attend exclusively to her own business. Cheerful, industrious, persistent, she is sure to succeed. The best wishes of 1924 are hers!

CLEMENTINE FLORENCE BRODIE

Activities: A. A. '24; Marshal, '22, '23.

Clementine is one who sticks close to steady work, takes life rather seriously, particularly when it comes to making I's on all her studies. She doesn't do much loafing, yet in her Junior year she was accused of looking twice at one particular male—shocking!

In seeking higher education we trust that meek, weak, voice may develop into something kin, at least, to Billy Crowder's sonorous tone.

THOMAS LEWIS BRODIE

Activities: A. A. '22, '23; Dramatics, '23, '24; Most Studious, '24; Class Donor, '24.

"No, I haven't time, I must study—Athletics? No, my work keeps me too busy. My! But I'd like to drop English and French, I'll never need them when I finish school." Yet, he's a scholar and a ripe and good one. We present Lewis—the diligent.

MARY ELIZABETH CARTER

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Marshal, '23; Dramatics, '23; Sigma Lambda, '24; Class Prophet, '24.

Mary is one of the fairest and truest girls in the Senior Class. She has just enough wit and personality to make you love her. Always ready to do her share of work for her school, no matter what the task may be—that's Mary.

MARY LOUISE EDWARDS

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '24.

This young person, while studious, is never over-serious; takes life calmly and quietly and doesn't let things worry her. We are prone to believe that her heart lies buried in Virginia or why should she make such frequent and lengthy visits to the Old Dominion State?

CLEMONT DURWARD EVANS

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24.

To Durward there belongs the easy faculty of taking things as they blow his way. Easy going, quiet, 1924 has found him true.

MAUDE ESTELLE EVANS

Activities: A. A., '21, '23, '24.

Like the fishermen of Norway, eating and quarreling are Maude's occupations, but she is harmless and only complains for the fun of it. "Fail on history? I shall stop school tomorrow. Science examination? We just can't take it Tuesday, etc., etc." Yet with it all, Maude always passes and has won her coveted diploma.

LITTLEJOHN TAYLOR FAULKNER

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '21, '22, '23; Baseball, '23, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Secretary of A. A., '23; Advertising Manager, '23, '24; Last Will and Testament, '24.

Take a bushel of fun; add words of gaiety, mix in a jovial disposition, flavor with a smile for every one and bake with a few pranks, such as hanging old clothes on the standpipe, or breaking desks in school—and you will produce Littlejohn of the Class of 1924.

ALICE EUGENIA FAULKNER

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Basketball, '23, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Dramatics, '24; Statistician, '24; Best Natured, '24.

Alice is worth her weight in gold! 'Nough said! She is the genuine article—all wool, a full yard wide, guaranteed not to rip, ravel or fade. Stands a great deal—even Henry's babble.

RUBY CLARE FAULKNER

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Editor of Pep-Pac, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Neatest, '24; V. Pres., '24.

Wanted—A girl with dark hair, hazel eyes; petite, winsome and pretty; capable and dependable. Signed, The Annual Board.

We have such a girl—Senior Class.

RALPH FINCH

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '24; Literary Society, '24.

Although small in stature is Ralph—not so in his accomplishments. We hastily rub up our rusty superlatives for use—enthusiastic, merry, funny, frisky, breezy, sincere—all this is Ralph and more!

MARY LOU FULLER

Scene—Her Christening. Characters—Fairy Godmother and four fairies. First Fairy—"She shall be good (Note deportment grades.)" Second Fairy—"She shall be wise." (Note I's on all subjects.) Third Fairy—"She shall be an athlete." (Member of Girls' Basketball Team.) Fourth Fairy—"She shall be popular." (Observe Senior Class meetings when officers are being elected.)

DOROTHY VIRGINIA GASTON

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Basketball, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Sigma Lambda, '24.

Hail to the most attractive girl in the class! "To know her is to love her." She is a true sport and a good friend. Capable—mixes work with pleasure. "Dot" we're for you!

HELEN HILLIARD HAYES

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; C. A. A. Treas., '23; Dramatics, '24; Sigma Lambda, '24.

Who'll stay and help clean up the class room? Who'll help arrange the auditorium for Hal-lowe'en? Who can keep the flowers in good condition? Who's willing to help sell ice cream? Who'll help plan the Senior parties? One answer—Helen.

JAMES SYDNEY HARRIS

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '21, '22, '23; Monogram Club, '24.

Academically speaking, James drifts along. By that we mean that cracking books is not one of his favorite pastimes. Athletically speaking, James also drifts along—quite strongly. He says he's lazy! Imagine!

LUCY ISADOC HOYLE

Activities: A. A., '21, '23, '24; Class Musician, '24.

The first to reach the place to help. The most dependable for any undertaking. The best loved by her many friends. The least grumbler of all the class. The last to shirk a duty.

BENJAMIN HAROLD MIXON

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '22, '23; Monogram Club, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Class Musician, '22, '23.

Harold is our original musical "savior." He plays anything from a drum up. Never has been afflicted with an overwhelming desire to study, yet in the end has made good. His blush is like a red, red rose.

FRANK CHURCH O'NEIL

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Editor-in-Chief of Dep-Pac, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Hi-Y, '23, '24; Marshal, '22, '23.

Frank is a gentleman, an Irishman, a scholar and a friend. He is, to the Senior Class, the very essence of brilliance, never making less than ninety-five on any subject. However, his brilliance does not keep him from being very mischievous. We know he will be successful in life.

ETHEL RAY PUCKETT

Activities: A. A., '23, '24; Most Accommodating, '24; Sigma Lambda, '24.

Ethel is one of the very few blessed with an even temper. She has never been known "to fly off the handle." "A friend in need is a friend indeed" and such is Ethel—quiet and unassuming.

HENRY THURMAN POWELL

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '24; Hi-Y Secretary, '23, '24; Literary Society, '24; Class Orator, '24; Inter-High School Declamer, '23.

From a Lawyer's point of view—

He could turn black into white.

From a teacher's point of view—

Capable of splendid work.

From Cecil's point of view—

He's the Prince Charming!

From a philosopher's point of view—

He has a good mind—it's keen.

From his own point of view—

"I recognize few equals and no superiors."

WILLIAM GREENE ROYSTER

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '22, '23; Dramatics, '23, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Hi-Y, '23, '24; Best Natured, '24; Class Treasurer, '24

If you want a boy who is ever ready to help, see William. If you want a boy who is always on the job—see William. If you want a boy who is quiet—see William. If you want a boy who is always ready to push and boost good things—see William.

WILLIAM PEERS STAINBACK

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '24.

Dear Mabel:—I'm graduatin'! I feel mighty proud about it. 'Cause every one ain't smart 'nuff to do it—it takes eleven long years you no—and I've been the whole show this year too—rung every bell. Without me the class would be there yet. And the girls they like me too—'s long.

WILL.

CECIL MAE RODWELL

Activities: A. A., '22, '24; Class Poet, '24; V. President, '23; Sigma Lambda, '24; Dramatics, '24.

Cecil is the possessor of a cheerful disposition. She believes in the saying, "Smile and the world smiles with you, weep and you weep alone." Her winsome and attractive manner has won her many friends, and they are not at all confined to the fairer sex.

MACY HAMILTON STEWART

Activities: A. A., '21, '23, '24.

Take a crop of red curly hair and put it above an ear to ear grin and you will have Macy. It's almost impossible to make him mad but when you do, it is a memorable event. He is one of those folks who doesn't say much but keeps thinking.

DOYLE HARTWELL STRANGE

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24.

The Senior Class would not be complete without Doyle. Never do we have a meeting or gathering of any sort but that Doyle's right there. While he is not a star athlete, he is a star supporter, always on the spot.

CHARLES PHILLIP STURGES

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '23; Hi-Y, '23, '24; Marshal, '23; Secretary and Treasurer Sigma Lambda, '24; Reporter, '24.

O femmes and fair damoseles, take warning! We know not whether Charles has taken many hearts, but we do know that he is an admirer of the ladies. News, oh yes, he's an information bureau. A good student and a friend.

EMMIE SUE STRICKLAND

Activities: A. A., '24; Literary Society, '24.

Emmie Sue hails from Georgia, "the land of crackers." We are very glad that she decided to complete her high school course with us as she has proved a true and loyal member of 1924.

BAKER UPTON

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '21, '22, '23; Basketball, '22, '23, '24; Baseball, '22, '23, '24; Business Manager of Pep-Pac, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Most Athletic, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Captain Basketball, '24.

This business manager of ours is a most amazing creature. Do you want a champion football player at the sight of whom opponents quake—a baseball specialist or "a goal-man from whose hands the ball goes straight into the basket"—then call for "Deacon." And this is not at all the limit of his accomplishments. He is a splendid actor and a student when he wants to be.

JACK WILLIS UPTON

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '22, '23; Basketball, '24; Art Editor of Dep-Pac, '24; Dramatics, '24; Best All-Round, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Class President, '24; Hi-Y, '23, Sec. A. A., '24.

Jack surely believes in getting all the joy possible out of life, yet he always seems to know all of his lessons—especially geometry. He is one of the most popular boys in the class, not only with the pupils, but also with the teachers. As president of the class, Jack has made us desire the ability he has—to stand on his feet and speak like a man.

LEON MCCOLLUM VICK

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Baseball, '22, '23, '24; Monogram Club, '24; Dramatics, '24; Hi-Y, '23.

Leon's head will always be a bright spot in the memory of his classmates—thanks be to "Pure Compound Lard." His hair is really a thing of beauty and joy forever. We could not do without Leon. He is a very important part of the Senior Class and also the baseball team.

CAREY PETTY WADDILL

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Cheer Leader, '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Class Historian, '24.

Petty is our wide-awake cheer leader and a good one too, always keeping us from appearing "rural" on most auspicious occasions. Social stuff—well he's right there, ready for every dance and party.

LUCY GRACE WALTERS

Activities: Watkins High School.

Grace shares honors with Emmie Sne in being the youngest member of our class in point of years since she only came to us this fall. The little we know of her makes us feel that a deep friendship with this most earnest student would be worth while.

MARVIN DANIEL WATKINS

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; President A. A., '22; Football, '21, '22, '23, Captain, '23; Basketball, '21, '22, '23, '24, Captain, '22; Baseball, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '23, '24; Hi-Y, '22, '23, '24; President Hi-Y, '22; Monogram Club, '24.

Marvin, who is ever quiet, well behaved, and good when a teacher is around, changes entirely when the class is left to itself, even for a few moments. He then endeavors to prove to us, in more than one way, that his nickname is truly well chosen. He is, however, our star athlete, having, made every team possible for the past four years. He is one of our best and most popular students.

SAM M. WATKINS

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Football, '21, '22, '23; Basketball, '24; Athletic Ed. of Pep-Pac, '24; President A. A., '24; Monogram Club, '24.

"Sky, the hard little guy from Henderson that even Oxford couldn't knock out." As star quarter-back on the football eleven Sam has led us on to victory and we are going to miss him too. Books, at least text books, have been among the least of his worries. Nevertheless he manages not only to pass but often to make excellent grades. 1924 has always found him a courageous, sincere, and good pal.

EMMA JOSEPHINE WORTHAM

Activities: A. A., '22, '23.

The casual observer might look at Emma and think her a quiet, gentle "goody-good." But those of us who know her, find hidden beneath her abundance of marvelous curls a good mind, capable of serious work. It is only lately that she has begun to spell love with a capital L.

EDWIN TYLER YOUNG

Activities: A. A., '21, '22, '23, '24; Dramatics, '24; Literary Society, '24.

Tyler is an all-round favorite with the ladies. His spare hours are always spent in planning a good time for whichever "her" he's taking to the next party. However, we warn him against his craving for "Miss Fatima." Academic work seldom bothers him, yet he always seems to get by. And his attitude toward work is characteristic: "What's the use of knowing that stuff?"

VOLUME 1 No. 1

Schools Crowded

September 16, 1919 —
Owing to the fact that the Central building is so crowded, the 7th Grades have been placed in the high school building. Misses Lelia White and Lucy Kittrell have charge of the two sections which are unusually large.

Upper Classmen Haze 7th Grades

September 17, 1919 —
Although the pupils of the 7th Grades thought they had finished the easy road to knowledge, they found to their sorrow today that they were mistaken. The burning paddles of the upper classmen soon showed them that they were not masters of the situation at the high school. The 7th grade boys were compelled to wear their neckties backwards and answer to the whim of others. Mr. Davidson soon put an end to this—much to the delight of the youngsters.

Revenge Is Sweet

September 15, 1920 —
Remembering the pranks played on them a year before, the Freshmen arose this morning and gave the 7th Grades something to remember them by.

Mr. Collar, Daniel and Wentworth at School

September 20, 1920 —
Several weeks ago, Misses Mae Hunter and Coble introduced the Freshmen to two gentlemen, Messrs. Collar and Daniel, of the famous study of Latin. While most of the pupils were very much pleased at first to meet these personalities, many have already a strong desire to cut their acquaintance and have nothing more to do with them. Mr. Wentworth who was presented by Miss Kittrell, seems to be more popular and the pupils are enjoying his stay.

Athletics at High School

September 22, 1921 —
A great interest in football has developed all over the State. The boys at the high school are planning with the help of Mr. Jimmy Cooper, to have a squad. Many Sophomores are out for the team.

Juniors Organize Class

October 21, 1922 — The Junior Class numbering 40, organized today with the following officers: President, Marshall Polston; vice-president, Cecil Mae Rodwell; secretary - treasurer, Waddell Gholson.

Unique Affair

Juniors Entertain Seniors

May 22, 1923—On Friday afternoon, the Juniors delightfully entertained the Seniors at a picnic supper. At 3 o'clock both classes met at the school building where trucks waited to take them 25 miles to Mitchener's farm. Arriving there, everyone who wished one, was given a fishing line to fish. At 6 o'clock a delicious supper was served, followed by games and stunts. On the homeward journey the party stopped for a weinie roast. As souvenirs, the Seniors were given miniature newspapers, portraying Senior characteristics. All voted the affair a decided success.

Class of 1924 Has Eleven Men Out for Football Squad

October 10, 1922—E. S. Johnson, a graduate of Elon College and a star athlete, has been secured through the efforts of the Rotary Club to have charge of athletics. Already a good squad is being mustered out; eleven men come from the Junior Class.

THE HISTORIAN

These are: M. Polston, B. Upton, J. Upton, W. Gholson, S. Watkins, M. Watkins, J. Harris, L. Faulkner, H. Mixon, W. Royster, H. Powell.

Mary Lou Fuller and Henry Powell Defeat
Seniors in Debate

April 5, 1923—The Juniors defeated the Seniors in the interclass debate held in the auditorium today. Mary Lou Fuller and Henry Powell upheld the affirmative for Juniors against Elizabeth Howland and Elnora Honeycutt.

Senior Class Organizes: Jack Upton, Pres.

September 30, 1923 — The Class of 1924, the largest Senior Class the school has ever had, numbers 36. On Monday the following were elected: Jack Upton, president; Ruby Faulkner, vice-president; Mary Lou Fuller, secretary; William Royster, treasurer.

ATHLETIC COLUMN

June 1, 1923—

1. Class of 1924 wins Class Basketball Tournament.
2. Juniors win Field Day score by having greatest number points.
3. Seven of the 11 football men are Juniors.
4. Three of the six players of girls' basketball are Juniors.

Class of 1924 to Publish
Annual. Frank O'Neil,
Editor-in-Chief

October 18, 1923 — The Senior Class today at its regular meeting decided definitely, if the faculty consented, to issue an annual. A staff was elected, and the editor-in-chief, together with the business manager, went to each room in school to present the plan to the various grades. Every one liked the idea and pledged their support.

M. L. Fuller, A. Falkner,
D. Gaston, Star

June 1, 1924—The girls' basketball team has had a most successful season. The excellent guarding of A. Falkner and D. Gaston and the splendid shooting of Mary Lou Fuller deserves mention.

SOCIAL COLUMN

POLSTON-CHURCH WEDDING

The Class extends its best wishes to its former president and his wife for a happy wedded life.

Miss Emmie Sue Strickland, of Georgia, and Miss Grace Walters, of Watkins, N. C., are now at home in Henderson, N. C., and are members of the Senior Class.

Misses Dorothy Gaston and Cecil Mae Rodwell have returned home from Greensboro, N. C., where they attended the Christian Endeavor Conference.

Frank O'Neil, Charles Sturges, Tyler Young, Sam Watkins and Henry Powell attended the Older Boys' Conference in Greensboro, N. C.

Class Prophecy

IN THE SPRING of 1924, the students of the Henderson High School developed a perfect mania for out-door picnics. We, the Seniors, despite our dignity and loftiness of position were no different from the rest. So one afternoon in early May, we set out from the school building with visions of weinie roasts and hot coffee dancing before us.

Truly we had a splendid time and about nine o'clock, while the full moon was shining brightly, we started home. As we were passing Beck's woods, we beheld a tiny light far out in the darkness.

"Let's go see what that light means," said Frank.

"Dunce," from Baker.

"Oh hush, let's" from Helen. Without delay off we started—the whole class.

Imagine our astonishment when we found that the light beamed from no other source than that of a fortune teller's tent.

Remembering the many sleepless nights that I had spent because of that unwritten prophecy, I persuaded the entire class to go in and see what surprises the future held for it. This is what the gypsy told:

Henry Powell: Your hand shows that you will finally become a judge of the Supreme Court and be able to talk as much as you please. You will also make enough money to meet the demands of Cecil Mae.

Ruby Faulkner: Your hand shows that you will find time to be just as neat as you were when you were in the Senior Class.

Littlejohn Faulkner: I see that you are fond of painting. In years to come you will still be painting signs to advertise the various games of the Henderson High School.

Lucy Hoyle: After several years of diligent training, I see that you will be teaching school, but because of your many suitors, you will not be able to give your pupils the proper attention.

Helen Hayes and Ralph Finch: Oh! I thought so from your looks! Ralph, you will make yourself famous as a clown in the Barnum and Bailey Circus, while Helen, after years of training in various methods of getting fat, will be a special attraction, "The Fat Lady" in a side show.

Macy Stewart: Your hand tells me that you will own a farm near Oxford which will be very close to your mother-in-law's home.

Annie Blanchard: Thanks to your constant practice, you will be a great manicurist, running an establishment in New York City.

Charles Sturges: You have such a remarkable literary talent that you will be a reporter for the New York World. You will enjoy very much the position as you will have the opportunity to attend most of the social affairs of the city.

Emma Wortham and Louise Edwards: You are destined to conduct the famous Wortham and Edwards Beauty Parlor with the following sign: "Hair Curled While You Wait. Cheeks in Bloom Over Night. Rosy Lips at a Second's Notice."

Sam Watkins: In spite of your frequent trips to St. Mary's, I see that you will be a bachelor, still willing and obliging to escort the ladies around.

Ethel Puckett and Lewis Brodie: Lewis, since you are such a conscientious and earnest student, I am surprised to find that you will marry a chorns girl, Ethel Puckett, for whom you must wait each night at the stage door after the show.

Frank O'Neil and Clementine Brodie: Let me compare your hands; they seem so much alike. Yes, in 1946, you, Frank, a radicalist, will run for the presidency of the United States against Clementine, who will lead the Man-Hater Party.

Harold Mixon: Your hand tells me that you will play in Sousa's Band. You will not be happy for your wife will be blessed with a voice for both singing and quarreling.

Grace Walters and Leon Vick: You two will become famous in the Keith Vaudeville Circuit, Grace as a toe dancer and Leon as an acrobat.

Dorothy Gaston: Your hand shows that you will star in moving pictures, but that you will spend most of your time trying to vamp Rudolph Valentino, Jr.

Carey Petty Waddill and Durward Evans: You both seem very neat. You will open an important shop over which will be hung this sign: "Do not Sleep on Your Pants to Press Them. Bring Them to Us to Do It for You. Waddill & Evans, Ideal Pressers."

Baker Upton: Your hand reveals the fact that you will be General Manager of the Bell Telephone Co. for a while, but finding that too tame, you will become a politician of the rankest sort.

Mary Lou Fuller: You will be the coach of the U. S. Girls' Champion Basketball Team, but will finally give that up and become really a great society leader.

Tyler Young and James Harris: It is hard to say exactly what you two will do, your hands are so complicated. Tyler will most probably draw for the comic section of the Oxford Ledger and James will, without question, sell the same paper at the Opera Grill.

Mary Carter: You have such a great desire to write that you will finally go to Africa and tour the country, boring the natives with your literary productions.

Alice Faulkner and William Royster: Both of you will finally enter into the bonds of matrimony, and live peacefully—perhaps—because each is a match for the other in size, and pleasant smiles.

Marvin Watkins: You will become a great missionary. Your greatest service to the future Senior classes will be the burning of every Geometry in the land.

Doyle Strange and Maude Evans: In 1940, you, Doyle, will arouse the world by being a most famous auctioneer. Your greatest seller will be a volume entitled: "How to Get a Man and Hold Him," written by Maude.

William Stainback and Emmie Sue Strickland: Your hands reveal that you will be in business. William will run a country store while Emmie Sue will sell the vegetables that he raises.

Jack Upton: Your hand shows that you will complete a course in architecture and be awarded the contract to build the million dollar Henderson High School.

Having had our fortunes told, we wended our way homeward. We could but laugh at many of the things that the gypsy had told us. But with one accord, we hoped, for the benefit of the future classes of the dear old Henderson High School, that Jack's fortune would come true.

MARY ELIZABETH CARTER.

Last Will and Testament

The Universe
United States
State of North Carolina
City of Henderson.

We, the Senior Class of the Henderson High School, still in possession of most of our faculties and being about to depart into the world, do hereby will all of our beloved and valuable possessions.

ITEM 1

We will and bequeath to the faculty as follows:

1. Our love and very best regards to Mr. Rollins, Mr. Davidson and Mr. Spencer.
2. To Mr. Spencer, all our Wooley's Haudbooks of Composition and all our parallel books, so that he may have a good supply on hand next year.
3. To Miss Roth, we leave many hopes of her having a quiet and modest Senior Class, hereafter. We leave her many thanks for the help she has given us in getting out our first annual and the splendid coaching she has given to the girls' basketball team.
4. To Miss Claude Hunter, we leave all the histories that can be found for miles and miles around, so that her pupils may have a goodly store from which to prepare their lessons.
5. To Miss McCarthy, we will a portable typewriter and then next year's Pep-Pac staff will get all its material copied—"free for nothing."
6. To Miss Dosier, we give all our Latin jacks that she may keep her future classes from using them.
7. To Miss Mae Hunter, we will a box of strong hooks upon which she may hang all the extra Latin pupils of next year's Freshman class, since her room will surely not hold more than sixty-five.
8. To Miss Muse, we leave a new invention which will give steam heat in any place.
9. To Mrs. Garrison all books on, "How to Put Expression into Everything."
10. To Mr. Garrison, our thanks for guiding us through such a successful season in athletics.
11. To all the faculty, we give our sincere thanks, our love and best wishes.

ITEM 2

To the "Class of 1925," the incoming Seniors, we do hereby will and bequeath:

1. All of our Senior privileges, which we have enjoyed so much. ? ? ?
2. To the Geometry Class, all the yard sticks which we have had so much trouble to secure and keep. We also leave the good marks made by us on the subject.
3. We give them our class room, the coldest in the building.

4. Knowing that he will be quite conscientious and not let school out too soon, we leave William Stainback's privilege of ringing the bell to Edwin Yarbrough.

5. We leave Doyle Strange's temper to Marston Clifton, so that he may seem to have a spark of life in him.

6. Since Knox Porter brags so much of his skill in sign painting, we will him all the painting material of Littlejohn Faulkner.

7. In order that Mildred Woodlief's nose may continue to be white, we will her all of 1924's vanity cases.

8. Ruby Faulkner leaves her 91 pounds to Artelia Walters, who needs just this amount of flesh to become the world's fattest lady.

9. To Frances Woodlief, the vocal apparatus of Henry Powell, but with the prayers of the student body that she may not exercise it as much as Henry has.

ITEM 3

To the incoming Juniors, we leave as follows:

1. Our sincere hopes that some day they may become Seniors.
2. The right of purchasing all the chewing gum of the combined factories of Wrigley, Beechnut, Adams, Beaman and any others we have failed to mention.
3. Our sympathy in the toils and struggles in Cæsar and Math.
4. To Polly Harris, Emily Bass, Margaret Church and Jenny Lind Carroll, we leave the services of Madame Beautifier so that she may be able to give them a complete course entitled: "How to Use Lipstick Properly."
5. To Caroline Macon, we donate all our paper and ink to use for letter writing to Porto Rico.

ITEM 4

To the "Class of 1927," we leave the following:

1. The "Stick-ability" to stay in school until they graduate.
2. To Garland Greenway, the long and patient study hours of Lewis Brodie.
3. To Frances Watts, the cheerfulness of Alice Faulkner.
4. To Jack Carter, our hopes that some day he may get out of the Freshman Class.
5. To Jimmie Mustian, the quietness of Clementine Brodie.
6. To Vernie Hoyle, the pretty bobbed hair of Annie Blanchard.

ITEM 5

To the Athletic Association we do hereby will and bequeath:

1. Our hopes and wishes to beat Oxford in all kinds of sports.
2. The power to have more games played at home than we had this year during football season.
3. The avoirdupois of William Royster and Littlejohn Faulkner for the next year's football team.

In witness whereof, we, the Class of 1924, the testators, do set our hands and seal to this our last will and testament on the first day of June, one thousand, nine hundred and twenty-four.

LITTLEJOHN FAULKNER.

Class Poem

TOMORROW—and our high school days are over,
No more will the Class of '24
Go and come together as of yore,
No more will we share the pain
Never know those joys again.
But tonight we'll give three cheers and more
For the dear old Class of '24,
And for the days that are no more.

Tomorrow—we may find the dawning
Of life's glad day at its morning;
We may each in his chosen way
Gain for ourselves great fame in our day.
Tomorrow, life will be for the choosing,
But tonight, no tears are we losing,
Tonight, no sadness may we know
Tonight, we'll smile and cheer for '24.

The days, the weeks, the years that were so long,
Already seem to have shorter grown;
Already time has righted the wrong
And brightened the joys we have known:
For those hands that have guided our way,
For those smiles that have brightened our day,
We thank our teachers, we will always give
Them our hearts devotion—
Long may they live!

To you dear Classmates of '24
Standing on the threshold of life's door,
To you, I would repeat o'er and o'er
One word with deepest meaning fraught
"Service"—is the message I have brought.
To live for self is to live for naught,
If we would life's richest fullness know,
We must live for others as we go.

Of all the Classes that have gone before,
May this dear Class of '24
To our school the greatest honor bring.
Let us feel we've done a noble thing,
If by "Service" our love for her we show.
And now we pause—before we go,
For now we say good-bye through smiles and tears,
May God be with us through all the years.

Senior Class

A bashful way has Clementine,
And quiet is Louise;
A chatter-box is Henry
And Baker just loves to tease.
William is always sincere,
And Alice laughs and plays,
While Cecil Mae is a flirt,
And Doyle is mad always.
Helen pretends to hate the boys,
But Emma loves them all;
Jack always brags and boasts,
And Ruby is ever so small.
A jolly boy is Macey,
And Samuel is so low,
Littlejohn always smiles,
And Maude has not a beau.
Lewis is very studious,
Mary is always true,
Durward is quiet all the time
And James is never blue.
Annie is very good natured,
Grace hardly ever smiles,
Ethel is the most dependable in the class,
Will's laugh can be heard a mile.
Dorothy is the most attractive,
Ralph the most mischievous and gay,
Frank is really the most handsome,
And Lucy is nice in every way.
Harold is our class musician,
And Marvin our best athlete,
Leon is very clever,
And Tyler is always neat.
Charles is very popular,
Petty is the most loyal in our band,
Mary Lou is the best all-round,
And the Senior Class is the best in the land.
In spite of the faults and defects
Of our class, we are very proud,
And I am sure if you knew the Seniors,
You would love the entire crowd.

See-saw, sacradown,
This is the way to Junior Town,
Latin, Math, History round,
And this the way to Junior Town.

Bass, Bass, the doctor's son,
Stole a jack and away did run,
The jack was nailed and Bass did fail,
Which sent his father for a rail.

Knox be nimble,
Knox be slick,
And Knox gather ads for the

Georgie Cheatham, pudding so rare,
Played football and made folks stare,
When old Raleigh came to play,
He caught the ball and ran away.

Little Miss Frances went to the dances,
All sparkling with delight;
Up came James Miller and asked to dance with her,
And Frances fainted with fright.

Little Mittie Crudup always seen
Eating big pickles green.
It takes every penny, it takes every nickel,
To keep Mittie Crudup in cucumber pickles.

Robert, Robert, speller fine,
Can you spell the word decline?
Yes, indeed, that I can
As well as any Junior man.
First "De" then a "K,"
Surely there is no other way.

Who wears little curls,
All hanging around her shoulders.
When she's in school, she abides by the rule,
But when she goes out, she grows bolder.

Little Katie Moss, at school her docrine lost.
Dear little Kate was forlorn,
But her Mother, bought her another,
And all her tears were gone.

FRESHMAN CLASS

A Day in the Freshman Class

At nine we read the Bible;
Latin then will begin,
M. Hunter says, "Do this and that,"
It never seems to end.

But soon: Ding! Ding! the bell we hear!
Oh joy! how glad we are
For though the Latin is all right;
We, seldom are by far.

In walks Mr. Speneer
With an Algebra to bless him;
He opens it; then looks around
And says, "Turn to the lesson."

"Do you understand it?" If we do,
He turns another page,
And there begins it seems to us
Another half an age.

We hear at last a bell,
And recess is begun.
We surely have a good time then
With lots and lots of fun.

Our English then we do have next
With Miss Dosier teaching;
A study period follows soon
And then recess is reaching.

Miss Muse teaches us Arithmetic
"Pupils, work one through nine."
A study period follows then
And Civics ends the time.

Don't think from this we never have
A single bit of play;
But yes, we do, we surely do
For that's the High School way.

Object

To set a high standard of school citizenship, and to do everything possible to improve our school.

On September 20, 1923, the Civics League of the Freshman Class organized under the supervision of Miss Mae Hunter with the above officers. The society meets every Monday. At each meeting the president appoints a Program Committee to have charge of the program at the following meeting. This committee may have for the subject: debates, current events, talks, plays and various things it may see fit to discuss.

Freshman Funnikins

M. S.: "Mr. Hamlin is so kind, he said I took a very pretty and artistic picture."

V. H.: "Indeed. And whose picture did you take?"

The teacher told John to give the principal parts of the verb "to carry" in Latin. John did not understand her so he asked his neighbor what she said. He replied, "I don't know," whereupon John turned around and said, "I dunno; I dummare; I dumnavi; I dumnatus."

BELL IS HEARD RINGING FOR END OF PERIOD

MR. SPENCER: "Keep on with your work; we have another period before recess."

Fifteen minutes later—Bell is heard ringing for end of recess.

MR. SPENCER: "Keep on with your work; that must have been recess."

WANT ADS.

WANTED: Some tweezers to pull up our Algebra grades. Freshmen.

WANTED: A remedy for my size. Mary Boyd White.

WANTED: A lasting cure for laziness. Aileen Smith.

MISS MAE: "W. A., Do you understand Latin?"

W. A.: "Why-er yes, mam, when spoken in English."

TEACHER: "Have you an excuse for being absent yesterday?"

PUPIL: "Yes, mam, I got it here in my pocket."

TEACHER: "That's all right, if you've got it I don't need to look at it. If you didn't have one I'd have to see it."

The Athletic Association

THE Athletic Association of the Henderson High School was organized in the year 1921. Before this time a few straggling games of basketball were played by both the girls and boys and perhaps the boys indulged in a baseball game, every now and then. But in 1921 with the help of the community, the school went in for football.

In 1922, Mr. E. S. Johnson, was secured as an athletic coach and the boys were piloted through a very good season. In 1923, Coach Garrison led them through the most successful season yet had.

The association has a record to be proud of as practically every student in school belongs to it. A membership ticket costing $1.00 entitles the holder to all the games played at home by girls' and boys' teams during the year. The splendid support given the teams, together with money raised by an occasional play has kept the organization free from debt—a consumation devoutedly to be wished by all associations but attained by few.

Last year, the girls joined the State Athletic Association, which has been organized by the leading high schools of the State. This gives them the privilege to work for letters by the point system. In 1923, twelve letters were awarded and this year even more students will wear the monogram.

Thus greater and greater strides have been made until now after three years, we feel that athletics are on the map of Henderson to stay.

A Review of the Football Season

The year 1923 will long be remembered as a banner year in the annals of H. H. S. football.

Last September when our new coach sent out the first call to arms, we checked up and found that six or seven of our letter men of last season had graduated.

We all began working in earnest with our new coach. After he had made several general shake ups of our green material and had a weeding out process, we began our schedule. Beginning with a 12-to-0 victory over Chapel Hill, who had defeated us twice last year, our team gathered confidence and momentum till the offensive power caused trouble to the opposing lines. Next we met our ancient rival, Oxford in Oxford and fought to a 0-0 tie. Durham High was our next victim, followed by Louisburg who received a complete walloping. We motored to Chapel Hill for a second encounter without our full strength, and lost 7-to-3.

At this time we went into the Championship games. Raleigh met us in Wake Forest and returned home broken hearted.

Fate decreed that we meet Oxford since we were both group Champions. We met them in Chapel Hill and returned with a 9-to-0 victory.

Next we were in the semi-final Championship game with Sanford. We lost our equilibrium and the game to a more experienced "eleven."

Wearers of the Blue and White 1923

CAPTAIN MARVIN WATKINS.

"Foots," our charging right tackle and Captain of 1923, has played with the local team since its organization in 1921. His playing has been consistent in every game. Capt. Watkins has played his last year for H. H. S. We regret the loss, due to his graduation in June. He is one of our best all around athletes, having made letters in three sports. He is also a good student.

BAKER UPTON

"Deacon" wears a letter and two stars which shows that he is one of the veterans on our 1923 gridiron. His fighting spirit has never failed during his three years with H. H. S. "Deacon" is an experienced player, having played nearly every position on the gridiron. He has caused much sensation as a defensive back both among his team mates and fans throughout the state. "Deacon" is a Senior this year; we will lose him but we expect to hear great things of him on some college team. He was voted to be the best all round athlete in school.

SAM WATKINS

"Sky," our brainy little quarter back, has the qualities for the position. He has been with the locals for three seasons and in all that time he has never missed a quarter. His line plunging deserves mention, and that, coupled with his educated toe has meant much for the locals. We regret to lose "Sky," for his position will be hard to fill.

JIMMIE HARRIS.

Jimmie, our half back has played both in line and back field during his three years at H. H. S. He is a consistent player and is always anxious to do his bit at any position. He is a senior this year.

HIGH SCHOOL

WILLIAM ROYSTER.

"Big Bill" was our man who stood like a stonewall at his guard position. He was the main stay of our line, having played his position for two years; he gave all of his opponents trouble. He was never spectacular but always consistent in his playing. William, we regret to lose you this year, but all of us are giving you our best wishes.

JACK UPTON.

Jack, is diminutive in size, but many a "giant" has fallen before the fierce tackling of the speed demon. Coach Garrison could depend on Jack doing his share from any position. He began the season at center, later playing end and half. He has been on the squad for two years, but since he is a senior, we shall lose him.

LITTLEJOHN FACKNER.

"Slab Top" is Littlejohn by name, but Big John at his center post. He was handicapped at the beginning of the season by a broken arm due to "Henry Ford." He played his best game against Raleigh in the championship games. He is a senior this year and will be heard from next on some college eleven.

C. D. RIGGAN, JR.

"Boob," our fleet footed half back, could always be relied upon for a few yards around the opponents' end. His defensive game was always in top form. "Boob" played only a few games last season, but Coach Garrison discovered a valuable ground gainer in him. He has two more years with the local squad, and the coach and fans are expecting even more next season.

25

HORACE BASS.

Horace, commonly called "Little Toe," our left tackle, filled his big brother's position of last season. This is his first year as a regular but his efforts were never lacking and he will be a valuable man next season.

26

GEORGE CHEATHAM.

George, our sub-tackle, broke into the limelight when he blocked a punt on Raleigh and raced seventy yards for the winning touchdown. He is one of a family of brothers to gain fame at H. H. S. He has another year to bring more laurels to the locals and fame to himself.

HIGH SCHOOL

FRED ROYSTER.

"Firpo," in size and action as well as name, had the task of right guard in his care. He was always cheering his team mates. He has one more year with us and with his training this season, he will be a mainstay next year. Look out for "Firpo."

JAMES MILLER.

Jimmie, played his first year of football as a regular. He hails from Richmond, Va. He is a good receiver of forward passes and can throw one like a bullet. He has one more year to get training that will make him a valuable college end.

KNOX PORTER.

This is Porter's second year with the team. He played left wing, and he is a sure receiver and a deadly tackler. He did nearly all the punting for us. We could always rely on his toe in time of danger. He played his best game against Oxford, when we beat them the first time in history. We are expecting him to be a mainstay on the local gridiron next season.

1923—Basketball—1924

THE local squad was called together for practice soon after the curtain fell, which closed the football season.

The prospect seemed bright for a winning team, although several letter men of last year had been lost by graduation. Captain-elect Baker Upton, Marvin Watkins, Harry Moore, Jack Upton, and Knox Porter reported at the first practice. Several new candidates proved worthy of mention.

The schedule began with three victories, but heavy scholastic duties took two regulars from the squad, in Watkins and Porter. Sam Watkins proved himself worthy of filling the berth as guard. It is said that the locals were at their best when they defeated Oxford High School in the first game by a score of 21-23. Later the event was repeated in Oxford.

The locals were given a three day trip to Wilson, Rocky Mount, and Raleigh Orphanage. This was the first trip of this kind for the boys, but they came back with the scalp of the Wilson High lads. The fans report that the most thrilling game at home was the contest between the Roanoke Rapids five and the local quintet. Trailing by a lone point Captain B. Upton started the fireworks during the last two minutes and won the game.

Although the team lost more than half of the games played, the total score of the season shows that they always gave a good account of themselves.

The Henderson second team made a better record than the varsity. This fact alone is enough to predict a winning team at H. H. S. next year.

Baseball

BASEBALL is the oldest sport in the institution, and has been very successful. This year the prospects indicate that H. H. S. will have a banner year. Several letter men of last year are back in line contending for their regular berths. Graham Hamm, star pitcher who never lost a game last season; Ben Renn, catcher; Baker Upton, Leon Vick, Marvin Watkins, Leonard Holland, Harry Moore, David Smith, and C. D. Riggan, last year's captain, are all out again, ready for a successful season.

When this book goes to press, the season will not have opened, but much interest is already manifested in the sport and the local nine will have a staunch following.

Coach Garrison will of course take over the reins of the national game and is planning a heavy schedule.

The Team

Daisy Lowry, captain, is one of the best forwards the high school has ever had. For two years she has helped win many a victory by her splendid shooting. We are glad that she is to have another year.

Ruth Johnson, loves basketball and plays it like the star she is. Quick, nimble alert, she follows the ball wherever it goes and always seems to be in the right place to receive it. H. H. S. is proud of her.

Mary Lou Fuller, can play basketball as efficiently as she does her academic work. Her easy, dextrous movements have kept many a guard on the move. The team shall miss her next year.

Alice Faulkner, Indeed! she is a guard—and one of the worst kind for the opposing team. Quick, earnest, she sticks to her man like a leech. What shall we do without Alice?

Constance Ellis, is one of those rare players who not only plays good ball but furnishes the fun also on the trips—particularly if we're weary over a loss.

Dorothy Gaston, is a genuine good sport who by her faithfulness to practice has made herself an asset to the team.

Doris Shearin. When the season opened Doris had to change her usual position of forward to jumping center. And a good one she has made too! Witness the score against Roanoke Rapids, all because of the tip off. Sweet-tempered, lovable, even her opponents like her.

Bertha Clayton, is one of those consistent players who can always be counted on to do her best.

Basketball—Girls

THE girls, because of inadequate equipment for other sports have centered their interest in basketball.

The first game this year was won from Franklinton by a 25-16 score. Later two games were lost but this served perhaps to only make us "fight" the harder and the following weeks saw Roanoke Rapids, Raleigh, Oxford, Chapel Hill and others go down in defeat before us. The season's victories have spurred us on and H. H. S. is hoping with the return next year of five of its lettered girls to make even a better showing.

The Literary Societies of the Henderson High School were organized on Thursday, January 20, 1923. The Sigma Lambda Society is composed of members from the Junior and Senior classes, while the Alderman Society has for its members, Sophomores and Freshmen.

The purpose of both organizations is to promote the literary talents of the students, especially in all forms of public speaking such as debates, declamations, recitations, and dramatics.

Although the societies are still new, much enthusiasm has been shown in the work and we are sure that the year's efforts will surpass all our anticipations.

History of Hi-Y

DURING the spring of 1922, there was launched in Henderson, a drive to secure for the town, a community Y. M. C. A. The drive was over subscribed, much to the joy of the young people.

In September, Mr. John T. Fesperman of Augusta, Ga., was secured as whole time "Y" Secretary. Upon his arrival, he immediately made himself popular with everybody. His first real duty, perhaps, was to take to the Older Boys' Conference in Raleigh, N. C., December 8, 9 and 10, 1922, a group of Henderson Boys. Thirteen were taken on this trip, and, upon their return, Mr. Vail, then State Boys' Work Secretary, was secured to come over and organize a Hi-Y Club for Henderson.

This was done on December 11, 1922, in the Chamber of Commerce. The first officers were: President, Marvin Watkins; Vice-President, James Cheatham; Secretary, Henry T. Powell; Treasurer, George McDaniel.

During this year the growth of the Club was rapid and soon the limit of twenty boys was reached. Among the many things done the first year were: The securing of twenty-seven dollars to aid in the foreign work; the securing of Dr. E. C. Branson of Chapel Hill to address the boys and the community on "Robert E. Lee, the Christian Gentleman."

The Club early took a stand to eradicate whatever form of cheating there might be among the students, and at its weekly meetings every phase of this work was discussed. Its influence during this time was marked and at the end of the year the Principal of the High School, in the presence of the school, paid a high compliment, by saying that the Hi-Y Club had more influence on the morale of the school than any other organization.

At the end of the school the Club dispensed with the weekly meetings for the summer, but resumed them the second week in September.

About this time the "Y" Secretary, Mr. Fesperman, was made State Boys' Work Secretary, and much to the sorrow of everyone, announced that he would leave the first of November. He is gone but not forgotten.

Mr. W. A. Welsh, from Jackson, Miss., was secured to take his place. While the boys were sorry to lose Mr. Fesperman, they were glad to get Mr. Welsh, and are finding as time goes on that he is also willing to do whatever he can for the advancement of the boys in the community.

On November 30, December 1 and 2, 1923, the boys of the entire state met at Greensboro, N. C., for the 5th Older Boys' Conference. The Hi-Y Club was represented by twenty-seven boys, everyone of whom was made better by attending this conference.

Upon returning from Greensboro, the need of a Hi-Y Club at Middleburg, N. C., a small town six miles north of Henderson, was seen, and a committee of four boys was appointed to visit the town and organize a club, which was done on December 12, 1923.

As this goes to press, the Club is preparing to organize a Junior Hi-Y for the Henderson High School.

I Wonder Why

She was giving out sentences to translate;
I had studied all but one,
She gave me that one with a rule to state.
I wonder why.

The day we had to write themes I didn't write a line,
(She rarely took them up.)
But when we came to class that day, she called for mine.
I wonder why.

I wonder why I always get the question I don't know,
I'm sure I studied all but that;
But then, teachers seem to know you so.
I wonder why.

We all ate apples in school one day, just to have some fun,
We didn't think we'd be caught,
She eyed us all, but caught only one.
I wonder why.

MORAL.

If you are caught,
Don't wonder why;
For over and over,
Again you must try—To be good.

"If you will write us the hour and the day,
You will be met by a member of the P. T. A.
And you will find a welcome awaiting you all around,
In our churches, schools, homes and town."

This little postal with a return card mailed to each out-of-town teacher, began the work of the Parent-Teachers Association for the year 1923-24. With coöperation the key-note of our year's work and the promotion of good will and friendliness between parents, teachers and the school board, our slogan, the work of the Association has gone forward steadily without friction.

The consolidation of county and city schools and the new schools in town have greatly increased the duties and opportunities of the P. T. A. and the year has been a busy one. Added to the libraries placed in the schools by the Association in 1922-1923, we have given this year: about $600.00 worth of books, athletic equipment, a victrola, a first aid kit for each school.

Helped to buy a drugget for principal's office in Central School, and gave financial aid to THE PEP-PAC.

The funds have been raised as follows: Tag Day; Motion Picture Play; Sale of Pencils, Tablets and Candy; a percentage of sales in November given by Roth-Stewart Clothing Co.

Mrs. O'Neil, the President has besides the officers of the Association, a capable chairman in each school who with the principal holds regular meetings—conducting the individual business of each school.

These few words would be incomplete without mention of the Grade Mothers, whose duty it is to know personally the teacher of her room; to keep in touch with the pupils and to promote a perfect understanding between mother and teacher.

Thanks

THE High School has many friends in the community who are ever ready to lend a helping hand. In its behalf the Staff wishes to thank the following:

The Coopers for the use of the warehouse as a basketball court.

The Daily Dispatch for giving so much publicity to our school news.

Mr. C. A. Stewart for his assistance in work for the annual.

Miss McCarthy for the typing she did even without "the portable."

Mr. Goodrich for the extra service and help in making our pictures.

The Parent Teachers Association for its interest and financial support.

Littlejohn Faulkner for advertising our activities so well.

J. C. Cooper for coaching football team in 1921.

Gilbert O'Neil and Eleanor Perry for help with the school play.

The Night 'Fore Exams

(With Apologies)

'T WAS the night 'fore exams, when all through the house
Everybody was cramming; 'twas still as a mouse;
The books were piled on the table without care
In hopes that some knowledge could be rescued from there;
We were not nestled all snug in our beds,
No visions of "passing" danced in our heads;
And sister with her Latin, and I with my Math
Had not settled ourselves for a long evening's laugh.
We crammed all the evening, hard work it was, too,
And at twelve we stopped, though then we weren't through.
But, as we jumped into bed that cold "exam" night,
Something seemed to say, "You'll pass all right."

“Printing is the Inseparable Companion of Achievement”

OVER FIFTY YEARS
of Continuous
Service to the Schools and Colleges of the
State of North Carolina.

During this time we have supplied, because of our reputation for
Quality, a greater volume of this class of work than any other plant in the State. We specialize on College work such as:

THE SCHOOL ANNUAL

IS it an achievement from the hands of skilled artisans — the result of careful planning by experienced workmen, or does it have the appearance of ordinary printed literature? You want the best that money can buy when you issue your Annual. Our facilities are perfect and our workmen are specialists. Place your Annual

It Pays to Stay in School

Examine the following salary scales and note what each person will probably earn in 12,000 working days, a period of 40 years:

Untutored laborer, $2.50 per day, total.....$30,000

Person finishing grammar school, $3.00

(minimum) per day, total..... 36,000

Increased earning power, $6,000

Value each day in school, $ 5.00 (nearly)

Person completing four-year high school

course, $4.00 per day (low estimate)..... 48,000

Increased earning power.....$18,000

$18,000 ÷ 1980 (days in school course)

= $9.50, value each day in school.

Person completing a four-year college course will average not less than $5.00 per day, total $60,000

Increased earning power.....$30,000

Value each day in school..... 11.00

These are the cold money facts, and do not include the higher values of culture, intellectual satisfaction, and spiritual appreciation.

DO YOU THINK IT WORTH YOUR TIME TO STAY IN SCHOOL?

Sincerely,

Vance County Board of Education

Our New Bowser Clarifilter is now running. It cleans clothes cleaner and better than we have ever been able to do before—and that's saying a lot. It's a great improvement over all previous machines, for it takes the dirt out of the cleaning fluid as fast as the dirt can be taken out of the clothes. It's a quicker process too, which makes early return of your garments even more certain, when coupled with our prompt and reliable delivery service. No gasoline odor in garments when returned.

ROSE'S 5-10-25c STORES

HENDERSON'S TWO MODERN 5-10-25c STORES

Two Stores where you can get what you want.
Two Stores where your shopping is made easy and pleasant.

In our new Store, next to the Post office, we have

Nothing Over 25c

While in the old store we have a complete line of merchandise ranging in price from 1c. to $2.00 and a few especially attractive items in Dry Goods and Hosiery, selling for $2.00 to $5.00.

You may be sure that everything you buy at ROSE'S is worth what you pay for it.

Our buyers keep new, fresh Merchandise coming into all our stores ever day. The staple items—all the little things you use many times every day—are always on our counters. And the new items—all the fads and novelties that are introduced from time to time—appear there only a short time after they are shown in New York.

We wish to call your attention especially to our

Big Stationery Department

Where you may find, at all times, Tablets, Pencils, Loose Leaf Note Books and all other School Supplies.

We are here every day ready to serve you.

They are all on display.

There's some nice parlor organs,

Drums, Flutes, Accordians,

But yet we have some pianos,

We have some pianos today.

IN LINE FOR YOUR BUSINESS

A business man advertised for a boy the other night. When he arrived at his office the next morning there were some fifty boys already in line. He opened his desk and was just about to begin examining the applicants when his stenographer handed him a card on which was scrawled:

"Don't do anything until you see me. I'm the very last kid in the line—but I'm telling you I'm here with the goods."

We are the last in line with a complete line of Commercial Books, Journals, Day Books, Cash Books, Ledgers, Time Books and all grades of Stationery, and We tell you we're here with the goods.
